DinoDania, Goombas, and Goblins!

a story by

Camdyn and Dad

Once there was a country named DinoDania.

Here is a DinoDania footprint...

T-Rexs live in DinoDania. Here is one that

ROARS!!

Goombas also live in DinoDania. Goombas are zombies, but we call them Goombas...

DinoDania also has Flamingos with long necks.

The Flamingo lives in a pool.

This is Flowertown.

It's in DinoDania, but it's down in a dark spot, but it's actually like REALLY light.

DinoDania is actually the dino footprint at the beginning, and Flowertown is inside the footprint.

Worms live in Flowertown, but the magical Fairies turn them into Goomba Zombies and Goblins.

This is a Flamingo Goblin mixed with a lion tail, a beaver tail, and horns like a gazelle.

The WORLD is ENDING

The World is Ending!!

Look! There is nothing on the next page.

OH WAIT!

WE'RE STILL HERE

This is a unicorn fairy gingerbread electric eyeball queen horse... and there's like... you see those vines... those flower vines? They SHOOT WATER!

And... this is a poisonous snake, um and it actually lives in this haunted warehouse and there's other pet snakes, there's a DAD snake and a girl snake and a boy snake.

And down the road there's a toxin poison water shop with some, um, venom, and a lot of COAL. Because baby snakes eat poison to get their poison up.

AND MOMMA'S SUPER BIG

Toxin-Poison
Water Shop

Okay! Now it's

THE END
